Lesson 2 – Student worksheet

Learning aim:

To speak confidently and effectively within a class discussion.

Scenario:

Hawk UK, a digital marketing agency, are advertising a number of degree apprenticeships in order to attract the brightest, freshest future talent. Degree apprenticeships allow employees to gain a full undergraduate or master's degree while they work (and receive a salary). Hawk's successful applicant will study at university for 20% of their week and work the remaining 80%.

Addie, a HR associate at Hawk, was involved in putting together the job advert for the role.

Please read the job specification carefully.

The HR team at Hawk have been overwhelmed by the amount of applicants they have received for the digital marketing apprenticeship role. Addie, along with the hiring manager, Hamish, is now involved in reviewing the applications. They have one final interview place available.

Please complete the table in preparation for a class debate, where you and your class will be deciding which applicant you believe the Hawk team should invite to interview, and why.

Career spotlight:

Human resources (HR) associates work within the HR team supporting HR managers/HR officers. They have a wide range of responsibilities including helping to recruit new employees, maintaining confidential employee records, and organising employee training and development activities. They need to be strong communicators, who listen actively and respectfully.
